

CO-BRANDING GUIDELINES

RATIONALE

Bold typography and arrow symbolism portray United Nations Development Business's (UNDB) position as a strong leader in connecting consultants, contractors, and suppliers to development projects worldwide. The official and reliable platform continues to move towards the right direction with a modern appearance that reflects its 41 years of history, future ambitions, and continued commitment to supporting international development.

The United Nations emblem and blue palette conforms with the United Nations branding and the supplemental orange colour reflects UNDB's role in advancing the Sustainable Development Goal #9, Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure.
